Boo the Dog Loves Freedom House!

We're so excited to have Boo, aka "the world's cutest dog," support Freedom House. Boo is an international celebrity with his own Facebook fan page and over 3 million fans.

Last week, Boo visited the Freedom House shelter as a pup volunteer and played with the survivors who live there. The women really enjoyed meeting Boo and spent the afternoon chasing him around and petting him.

Boo is celebrating his sixth birthday on March 16, 2012. For his birthday month in March, he is asking his friends and fans to participate in a month-long donation drive to raise $15,000 for Freedom House, to help house and empower survivors of human trafficking.

Check out the Boo Loves Freedom House page to join the fun and to view pictures from Boo's visit to the house.
