Freedom House Is Open

Freedom House is thrilled to announce the opening of its transitional shelter home for survivors of human trafficking in the Bay Area.

To celebrate this achievement, Freedom House was pleased to host an opening party at Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe's office in downtown San Francisco.

Jaida, the Founder,
Thanks Supporters

Abraham Lincoln, the face of the penny, issued the Emancipation

Proclamation, leading to the abolition of slavery in the US. Once hundred and forty-seven years later, we are still fighting against modern-day slavery in the United States.

The event boasted a beautiful venue, food, entertainers and speeches. Thanks to the many donors that made the night possible and thanks to everyone who came out to help Freedom House celebrate!

Celebration Performers

Orrick provided space, decorations, food and staff. Peets provided coffee. Izzie provided drinks. Wholefoods and Costco donated gift cards. We enjoyed the music of many talented performers. Freedom House thanks everyone again for their amazing support!

Donate to Pennies for Freedom

Join the fight to end slavery by taking the pennies and other change from the bottom of your purse, pocket or drawer and donate it to Freedom House.

Collect coins from friends, family, school, church or work. Freedom House will use donated funds to provide free housing for survivors of modern-day slavery.

Freedom House's Work

Freedom House is furnished, open and serving clients.

Take a look at the many pictures on these pages to see the hard work of volunteers and the finished rooms at the house.

Freedom House has been working hard! We conducted over twenty local in--service trainings at Iservice providers in an attempt to raise awareness about human trafficking victims among agencies working with vulnerable populations.

By conducting training and outreach, we have helped to identify survivors in the community.

We have worked with such survivors to offer a variety of services including housing, referrals and case management.

While this is a good start, our work has shown us how much more work there is to be done.

We thank you for joining us in this journey.

"I loved volunteering and supporting such a great cause. Thanks Freedom House for all of your work."

Completed Advocate Training

On October 5th, 2010, Freedom House completed its first anti-Trafficking Advocate Training Session.

The training introduced volunteers to the issues of human trafficking, provided them with materials and prepared them to discuss this issue with friends, family or other community members.

The goal of the training was to train advocates to raise awareness about the problem of human trafficking in the community.

Advocates may represent Freedom House at various events around the area.

Freedom House will hold another advocate training in Winter 2011.

Check back with us in January!

Become a Volunteer

More Volunteer efforts

There are many volunteer opportunities at Freedom House - shelter volunteers, advocate volunteers, event volunteers, volunteer coordinator, graphic designer, dentist, therapist, musicians, language advocates and fundraiser.

We are also looking for volunteers for our April Benefit dinner.

Check out the Employment and Volunteer Opportunities on the website under the About Us tab:<http://www.freedom-house.us.com/employ->

Become a Monthly Donor

Private Room at Freedom House

Take a look at the pictures of the shelter home on this page. This is the shelter Freedom House provides to survivors.

We need your help to continue to provide shelter and support to survivors of human trafficking.

We will begin a campaign over the holidays to sign up monthly donors. We are asking donors to sign up to give $29 monthly donations.

Such donation of $29 will go towards the general cost of providing a home for a survivor for one night at Freedom House.

Monthly donors will receive a tote bag with a Freedom House logo. Be the first to go green and support Freedom House!

Also a monthly donor subscription makes a great Christmas gift for family or friends!
